GOALS AND METHODS

The purpose of the seminar is to analyze and discuss some of the latest developments in competition law. The seminar will focus on some of the most challenging issues at the European level, including those relating to the powers of investigation of competition authorities in the digital era and the most recent case law and practice and other current issues in the field of unilateral conduct.

To this end, the seminar has managed to bring together an exceptional team composed of internationally recognized professionals from the public and private sectors.

This Seminar will be held through Microsoft Teams (online mode)
